

Don't land yourself in deep water!

Your water retail services will transition to a new supplier in April 2017.
Now is your opportunity to transfer to a supplier of your choice!

1st April 2017 - Market Opens

1.2 Million

non-domestic customers will be able to contract with a retailer of choice and negotiate bespoke pricing and contractual arrangements

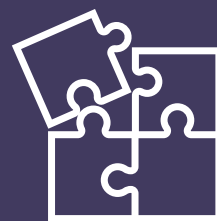

17 Retailers

have already applied for trading licenses, Ofwat has predicted that this number will double over the next 12 months

New Market Entrants

will deliver all retail services and the local water company will no longer bill non-domestic customers directly

Deregulation is expected to:

01

Increase choice

02

Lower prices

03

Enhance services

A selection of Energycentric customers' were asked when they expected to contract with a water retailer. The results indicated a strong desire to go to market early.
